

it's so tempting to recline on grass blanket observe cobalt sky parading its rich variety filled with fluffy menagerie you feel like you are floating up on high one with the clouds almost able to touch them stretch your fingers to heaven life can wait it's a moment not to miss this is your life to be a cloud watcher to be one with nature

you press pause freeze frame in your mind's eye capture it all store these images inside rich treasure out of sight your spirits rise joy comes to open hearts those who invite glory to invade their lives who offer attention and time
